AMEND Senate Bill No. 1153*

House Bill No. 1557

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section § 37-1-133, is amended by adding the following language as a new subsection:

(d) When a child is adjudicated delinquent or before the child admits the commission of any offense, the juvenile court shall notify the child that the child's adjudication and fingerprints will be forwarded to the Tennessee bureau of investigation, and that absent a subsequent expunction, the adjudication and fingerprints will be disclosed to authorized agencies and may prevent the child's employment or other connection with an authorized agency.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-153(f)(1), is amended by deleting the sentence "Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, any person who is tried and adjudicated delinquent by a juvenile court may subsequently petition the juvenile court for expunction of all court files and records." and substituting instead the following language:

Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, any person who is tried and adjudicated delinquent by a juvenile court may subsequently petition the juvenile court for expunction of all public records relating to the adjudication. For the purposes of this section, public records shall have the meaning given in § 40-32-101.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2009, the public welfare requiring it.
